Daily Support Program

After eight years of helping clients all over the world, what I have found is that often people face the same challenges regardless of age, sex, income or location.

I designed the Daily Energetic Support Program as a cost effective way to help people in areas like self esteem, stress, abundance, etc. Each day, I transmit at least twice a day to all participants in the Daily Energetic Support Program a series of 29 transmissions. Some of these transmissions are for:

- Clear, heal, transmute and release energetic weaknesses, imbalances, illness and disease states using Crystalline Rainbow Reiki™;
- Healing to promote optimal physical, emotional, mental and spiritual health and well-being on all levels using Crystalline Rainbow Reiki™;
- Healing emotional trauma, inner child wounding and the personality self using Crystalline Rainbow Reiki™;
- Release blocks to becoming abundant, prosperous and successful;
- Release blocks to feeling happy, content, satisfied and fulfilled;
- Release blocks to loving, accepting, liking, trusting and believing in yourself and others.

Money Healing Program

One of the most important relationships we have in life is our relationship with money. True abundance is not so much a matter of how much money you have as it is about how much peace of mind do you have around money.

When you think about your money, job and finances, how do you feel?

If you feel peaceful, calm, happy, content and fulfilled, then you already have a great relationship with money! If, however, you feel stressed, anxious, worried, depressed or fearful whenever you think about your money, job or finances, you definitely can benefit from the Money Healing Program.

Whatever you currently are experiencing now with your money and personal finances is the external out-picturing of your beliefs, feelings and attitudes about money, success, prosperity and abundance. In order to heal YOUR relationship with money, you need to identify how you sabotage yourself financially so that you can clear, release and eliminate those limiting beliefs and blocks.

The goal of the Money Healing Program is to help you release the negative programming you hold around money so you can attract more money, prosperity and success into your life. The Money Healing Program is comprised of an e-book, over twenty vibrationally encoded images, six video presentations and three mp3 audio recordings.
