

Healing Holograms Newsletter

November 2009

This month has been about working with a lot of new energies and templates. I have been working with Anita Briggs and one of her new IMT healing practitioner trainees on downloading and creating the next generation of Inner Mastery Tools. They feel very pristine, shiny and hugely upgraded so this has been very exciting.

Maria Bowling and I released our new Mandala Calendar for 2010 and it is very beautiful. I became the Reiki expert for the popular SelfGrowth.com web site this month as well. My most recent project is working with Monica Castaneda on a new Feng Shui healing manual called Feng Shui Cures for Astrology and the Five Eastern and Western Elements.

I also am contemplating a new version of comprehensive clearing profiles for Angelic Mastery™ and working on a training module to attune people to transmit the series of blasting, mini-healing sessions to themselves and clients. And on top of all of this I am developing a new web site for my line of healing books.

One of the interesting aspects of my life is as I upgrade my vibration, I sometimes trigger some unexpected issues with electronics. When I was working on the healing image books, I had to upgrade my laptop because my old one just couldn't handle the project. And this month my external hard drive crashed because it was not compatible with the high frequency art images from the books that I stored on it. But when I was going through the old laptop identifying the files I needed to recreate on the new upgraded external hard drive I found a treasure trove of mp3 audio recordings I created for Heart Oriented Ascension activations.

New Heart Oriented Ascension MP3 Audio Recordings

In late February when I was working on the rollout of the BillAustinArt.com site, I was inspired to create a lot of MP3 audio recordings for Mastery Activations and DNA Mastery Activations. These are very powerful activations that I brought in initially in early 2008 when I downloaded the body of work I call Heart Oriented Ascension.

Some of the Mastery Activations include things like Angelic Mastery Activations for Forgiveness and Grace, AA Michael's Mastery Activation for Energetic Protection, AA Raphael's Mastery Activation for Healing and Well-Being, Christos Mastery Activation for Embodying Christ Consciousness, Buddha/Quan Yin Mastery Activation for Healing the Inner Child and Personality, etc. They are only $33 each and between now and December 15, when you order two of these Mastery Activations – at the SAME time - I will send you a link to an additional one at no charge. You just have to email me at bill.austin@prodigy.net immediately after you place the order for two of them as to which one you want for the free one.

I also have placed on the web site many mp3 audio transmissions for some very potent DNA Mastery Activations. The special pricing for Mastery Activations DOES NOT apply to these DNA Mastery Activations. Each of these DNA Mastery Activations is $60.

New Divine Ideal Extract Blasting Session

There are so many blasting or mini-healing sessions now that I often get questions from people as to which one would be best for them at any given moment. Each day I transmit a divine ideal extract from ALL of the blasting sessions to people who participate in the 28 Day Blasting Program. It occurred to me one night as I was doing that daily transmission that it would be nice to create a Divine Ideal Extract for ALL of the Blasting Sessions so people who order it would receive whatever energies they are aligned with from ALL of the individual blasting sessions. I downloaded this healing template last week and I am now offering this to folks for $15. Like all of the blasting sessions, they are automatically sent to you upon payment – I do not have to transmit them to you distantly. If you feel drawn to working with this a lot, you may want to consider joining the 28 Day Blasting Program which is very popular.

Using the Universal Clearing Profile (UCP) to Help Your Children

Monica Castaneda shared with me two beautiful stories this month about how she was able to help her children using the Universal Clearing Profile. Because I do not have children myself, I never thought about what a wonderful gift the UCP could be to a parent. I was so moved by her experiences that I wanted to share them with you as well.

Testimonial One: My six year old boy had a close encounter with a bee one day last spring (the bee touched his hand) and since then he was afraid to be outside. He would crunch up his shoulders whenever we walked out the door. One day I asked him if he gave me permission to use the Universal Clearing Profile on him to clear him of the fear of bees. At first he was reluctant but then he said "Yes." I got my manual out and went through the process and then had him look at the image for a few minutes. About five minutes later I saw him squatting looking at something intently. When I got close I saw he was mesmerized by a bee getting nectar out of a flower -- he was less than a foot away from it. His shoulders were still crunched up though and he said he was still afraid of bees. A couple of weeks later he came to me with something in his hand. It was a huge bumblebee. He was holding it from the wings. He said, "Look mama, this bee really likes me. I 'caught' it and have been playing with it in the yard and it didn't even try to sting me." At first I thought it must be dead, but it wasn't. I asked him to let it go and he did. Of course we had to have a conversation about staying away from bees!

Testimonial Two: My six year old boy had taken a few swim classes, both group and private, but was not making progress as expected. The teacher told me had said he was afraid of sinking and the deep end of the pool. I used the Universal Clearing Profile on him to clear the fear of sinking. The next time he had a class he was able to go to the deep end of the pool and swim by himself with a noodle. Next the teacher told me he was afraid of getting water on his face, so we cleared that too and right after that the instructor got him to put his head under water for eight seconds! Now he is progressing rapidly with his swim lessons.

Free Healing Image for November

This month I have been working a lot with clearing the energies of fear from my energetic spaces, consciousness and awareness. I decided to make the Angelic Love and Healing Wash for Fear and Core Fear the free healing image for the month to help others clear out fear. I created this image for my new book - Bill Austin on YouTube™ - which I hope to release during the first quarter of 2010.
