Releasing the Past and Moving On...

Well this has been an incredibly busy month for me. For a long time, I have been thinking of recreating the Healing Holograms web site and creating a new one called www.BillAustinArt.com but it never felt like the right time to do it so I never acted on it. I also knew it would involve a lot of work to do this as well so I never felt too inspired to begin this.

In early February, I got that it was time to move on this and it was quite an interesting process really. As I worked on creating the new site, it made me look at all that has transpired in my life since I created the Healing Holograms site nine years ago. And it brought up a lot of my past stuff to be healed, cleared, transmuted, etc. As I heal the past I got a lot of great insights about the future and discovered new ways and things to introduce. Everything that I decided to place on the new site got hugely upgraded as well so it was very exciting.

This continues to be a very challenging time for the planet and most of humanity. I have been working with a lot of clients to assist them in this area and the things that keep popping up are:

- 1. Living Authentically from Your Heart and Soul;
- 2. Reclaiming the Power You have Given Away to Others;
- 3. Speaking Your Truth and Being True to Yourself;
- 4. Listening to, Honoring and Following Your Inner Guidance and Wake Up Calls.

There is a lot of information in this newsletter so I thought I would provide a series of links for you:

Things in the Works

Structure of the New Site and Free Resources Page

Basically the BillAustinArt.com site has six major sections and four major subcategories. Most people who are drawn to my work are either interested in healing, enlightenment, help with money and training. So the categories of the site are:

- 1. About Bill Austin which includes but is not limited to:
 - a. Biography for me;
 - b. Information about my healing images;
 - c. Affiliate Program Information
- 2. Energy Healing Sessions and Services
 - a. Create Your Own Sessions;
 - b. Daily Energetic Support Program
 - c. Angelic Mastery™ Sessions
 - d. Practical Mastery™ Sessions
- 3. Prosperity, Success and Abundance
 - a. Money Healing Program
 - b. Abundance and Money Healing Images
 - c. Money Healing Recordings and Sessions
- 4. Clearing, Healing and Protection
 - a. Clearing, Healing and Protection Digital Products
 - b. Clearing and Healing Images
 - c. Self Directed Healing Program (which now has a second group of products)
- 5. Empowerment and Enlightenment
 - a. Mastery Sequences
 - b. Crystalline DNA Activations
 - c. Advanced Clearing and Protection Package (on sale this month for a third off)
 - d. Heart Oriented Ascension
- 6. Practitioner Training and Support
 - a. Universal Clearing Profile
 - b. Practical Mastery™ Training
 - c. Crystalline Rainbow Reiki Training

I also recreated and upgraded the free video for Clearing the Top Ten Money Blocks and added new videos transmissions to the BillAustinArt.com site for twenty universal healing images; heart oriented ascension and a new line of Angelic Mastery Sequences (discussed below). To make it easier for folks, I created a free resource page that has links to all of these free options:

Monthly Special Offer and Healing Image

This month the monthly special offer is one third off the price of the Advanced Clearing and Protection Package. Perhaps the most powerful group of transmissions I do in the area of energetic shielding and protection. Normally this is priced at $180 but from now until the next newsletter it is $120 IF you order it off of the Monthly Special Offer Page which is:

<http://www.billaustinart.com/MonthlySpecialOffer.htm>

This month the monthly free healing image is one for Clearing Resistance and Polarization from Where You Are Now to Where You Want to Be. This image I feel is both very pretty and very powerful energetically. Here is the link:

Self Directed Healing Program, Group 2

Save over 1,300 or 80% when you order the second group of Self Directed Healing Program video transmissions and mp3 audio recordings. The first group of digital products focuses on clearing and healing and sets the groundwork for enlightenment. Although I am not making the first group a prerequisite to order this one, I do STRONGLY ENCOURAGE people to order and work with the materials in Group 1 first prior to ordering Group 2. The focus of this group is around opening your heart and aligning with the Heart Paradigm. The cost of this is just $344.

The List of Thirty Digital Product Downloads Comprising the Self-Directed Healing Program, Group 2

Customized Healing Images

Perhaps the most exciting new offering for me. I have been creating vibrationally encoded healing images for over two years now. I wanted to focus on creating universal healing images that could help lots and lots of people. After creating over 2,000 images, I am feeling complete with this aspect of my world service work.

So for the first time ever, I am now offering to create customized healing images for other people. I have been creating customized healing images for myself for a long time now and they have really accelerated my spiritual evolution and growth. The cost for each Customized Healing Image is just $97 which includes S&H if you live in the US, Canada or Mexico. It costs a little more if you do not reside in North America.

Angelic Mastery Sequences™

These are a new line of Angelic Video Transmissions to assist people in awakening and opening their hearts and to align with the emerging Heart Paradigm on Gaia. Some of the videos include things like: Forgiveness/Karma Healing; Transforming Beliefs and Emotions; Heart Chambers Activation; Honoring the Physical Body; Angelic Enlightenment and my personal favorite the Angelic Fresh Start... This series of video transmissions is priced at $33 - a great deal!

Unplugging from the Matrix Part 5 and 6

These series of powerful Unplugging from the 3D Matrix mastery activations are part of the heart-oriented approach to ascension I have been downloading since the beginning of 2008. In order to move firmly into the Heart Paradigm and build a new foundation there, each of us must untangle ourselves from the mental/mind paradigm and unplug from the third dimensional matrix and web of mass/duality consciousness.

Each part of these powerful mastery activations help liberate light-workers, healers and starseeds from being tied into the prevailing mass/duality consciousness of humanity so that they can get their world service work out into the world. I initially downloaded two mastery activations - one for Unplugging from the 3rd Dimensional Matrix and another one for Healing the Mental/Mind Paradigm. Last year, I was able to bring in four parts of this and when I was looking at placing it on the web site, I got that I could download parts five and six and so I went ahead and did so.

New Feng Shui Manual on The Five Eastern and Five Western Elements

Gifted Feng Shui consultant and teacher Monica Casteneda and I have co-created another very powerful Feng Shui manual for the elements. The elements of Earth, Water, Fire, Air and Spirit/Ether tap into some of the most powerful and primordial aspects of who we are. Truly each of these elements is a grand healer and teacher and as you work with these elements you can heal a great deal not only in your home but also in your ultimate home - the body of the planet and the physical body you live within.

We live in a time of hugely accelerated change and the pace of life gains more and more momentum every day. At times it can feel overwhelming but if you ground with Earth; go with the flow of Water, live authentically with the passion of Fire, observe your life with the detachment of Air and nurture the flow of life force energy or chi within you life can become much more easy and flowing for you.

To learn much more about the new manual, please visit:

PS: Monica is also a very talented web designer who does all of my graphic work including the lovely graphics for the new BillAustinArt.com site. Her design web site is www.MonicaGraphicDesign.com.

New IMT-Empowered Affirmation Set for Building Self-Confidence and Self Certainty

Self-confidence is built upon the foundation of true self. The more you know, embrace, embody and express the truth of who you are — the more self-assured and certain you become. The activations in this module will help connect or re-connect you to your divine origins and enable you to live more fully. The activations will dissipate fear and all sense of limitation, and cultivate inner strength from the true self, so that all experiences are seen as opportunities for growth.

The more you trust yourself to do what is right and be yourself, the more you grow in integrity of being and tap into the god-self within—your point of infinite power. When you walk in life with confidence, you become a commanding presence, and support for your visions begins to pour in from all avenues, including the people in your life, circumstances, new opportunities, etc.

This module and its IMT-enhanced meta triggers focus on three main areas of transformation:

- Self-confidence and self-trust
- Trust in life as a beneficent force, as Love in action
- Self-confidence around others

What I particularly like about this new product is the way Anita has been able to embed very powerful clearing profiles into exercises that you just have to read to trigger the healing. It is very kewl and Anita's work continues to evolve and grow in power with each manual she writes. Very exciting and I feel that this line of products will help lots and lots of people. The price for this module is $27.

Things in the Works

I have several very exciting projects in the works that I hope to release by May:

1. The ABC's of Color: A Book for Kids of All Ages (project I am working on with an extremely gifted artist healer Maria Bowling)
2. Angelic Mastery Spiritual Healing and Enlightenment Practitioner Training Program (project I am working on with Anita Briggs – founder of Inner Mastery Tools and a very gifted healer)
3. Universal Pet and Animal Healing Program (project I am working on with Melinda Knights an Australian animal healer and communicator).

Much self love, joy and mastery to each of you
Bill
